Simplicity is a good virtue. Simplicity makes you strong. Simplicity brings us all together in front of the crackling fire. Simplicity is evoked by means of the simple mix of natural fibre and rubber. The materials are turned and sometimes straight, nicely in line and sublimely captured in a web of ingenious weaving. Rugs to love.

SALVADOR

• Fresh and Multicoloured • Made in India

This evokes the image of India, of women adorned in their traditional saris. It is these local village women who mix the production remains of their saris with jute and process them into handspun threads, which are then woven by the best hands of the region into this carpet. Patience and dedication produces this unique, different, robust look.

1847: the first jeans are created. A sturdy pair of pants for gold diggers, pioneers and adventurers. John Wayne conquered the Wild West wearing them. Then James Dean conquered the rest of the world. These are rugged pants with a reputation. Everyone knows them, we all have some at home. We wear them, cherish them, allow ourselves to be admired in them, wear them out. And then we bear them regretfully to their grave, our companions. This line, the Vintage Jeans, breathes new life into them again. Jute and Neon: the next generation jeans now graces the floor beneath your feet. No more farewell to you, my friend.
